

How to Curate your Art Exhibition

Date: Wednesday 22 August 2018 Time: 5.30 to 9 pm

Venue Vancouver Art Centre, Vancouver St, Albany

This workshop is designed for both the Venue owner and Artists exhibiting in the 2018 Southern Art and Craft Trail. It will cover all the best principles of curating your exhibition, no matter what the venue design you have. You will also look at the business end of attracting people to your exhibition, and gathering vital data for your next event.

Here's what you will learn:

- How to select the content of your exhibition
- How to present and hang an exhibition
- How to include multiple artists in an exhibition
- How to prepare catalogues and other information
- Planning an opening event
- Preparing Exhibition signage
- Exhibition Data collection

Presenters:

Paul Moncrieff Paul has a Master of Arts [Visual Arts], and has held 20 solo exhibitions. His work has been collected by WA Art Gallery, Janet Holmes a Court, and Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery to name just a few. He curated last Year's Mix exhibition in Albany, and this year will be the fifth time he has exhibited in the Southern Art and Craft Trail.

Merry Robertson Merry is a Marketing Consultant, Professional Speaker, Trainer and Artist. She brings commercial and practical thinking to the curating mix.
